- Partner institutions:
  - University of Cadiz, Spain
  - University of Bergen, Norway
  - University of Plymouth, United Kingdom

The above mentioned Masters Course has been selected under the Erasmus Mundus programme and is entitled to receive Community funding for scholarships for selected students from countries other than the European Union Member States, European Economic Area countries and EU candidate countries. Scholarships are awarded on the basis of a selection procedure carried out by the Erasmus Mundus consortium. Further details on the Erasmus Mundus programme can be found on the Erasmus Mundus Website: http://europa.eu.int/comm/education/programmes/mundus/index\_en.html.

The tables in the annex list the students selected by the consortium on the main list and on the reserve list. All students mentioned on the main list are recommended to be awarded a scholarship of 35,600 € for attending the above mentioned Master Course of a duration of 16 months, starting in the academic year 2006-2007. Students can study in any of the countries in which the universities belonging to the Erasmus Mundus consortium are located. Students on the reserve list might be awarded an Erasmus Mundus Scholarship in replacement of students figuring on the main list.

All students receiving a scholarship are automatically and free of charge covered by an insurance scheme against risks related to health, accidents, death, permanent invalidity and civil responsibility. Cover takes effect two months prior to the start of the “Erasmus Mundus” Masters Course in which the student is enrolled and is valid until three months after the end of the course. Further details on the conditions of the insurance scheme can be found on the following website:
